Just Born Reading Room Stars and Saturday Event Series

Tell Me a Story — Saturday, September 6, 10 AM-Noon

Listen to stories . . . learn to tell stories . . . play games with stories . . . and create your own Story Catcher and Bag. Use your whole self to make stories come alive. Presented by members of the Lehigh Valley Storytelling Guild, this workshop is geared for children 7 and older — younger children may attend with a parent in tow.

Carmella the Cat — Saturday, September 20, 10 AM-Noon

Author Ann Cerino is coming to share a story about a stranded kitten, a kind woman who rescued her, and a dedicated veterinarian who saved her life. This true, heart-warming story is a lesson in caring for animals and giving them a forever home.

What is Mr. Peepers! — Saturday, October 11, 10 AM-Noon

Author Susan Master, illustrator Ann Cross, and professional photographer Mary Alice Fassl from Bedtime Tails are very excited about their newest book. It is based on a true story about a little chick that was born outside of the hen house on a ranch in Texas. Find out about all of his incredible adventures.

Go Figure! — Saturday, October 25, 10 AM-Noon

Math can be fun?? You bet! Join Sarah Rusnock and Natalie Miller for a fun-filled morning as they explore math topics, including number sense, probability, beginning Algebra, and math in the kitchen! Suitable for children ages 8 through 10.

The Amazing Brain — Saturday, November 8, 10 AM-Noon

Back by popular demand for all our young scientists—join Dr. Cecilia Fox, Director of the Moravian College Neuroscience Program, and her fabulous students as they help us to understand what makes us tick. Don't miss it!

Mermaid Tales: A Royal Tea — Saturday, November 15, 10 AM-Noon

Author Debbie Dadey visits us with her ninth and newest book in her wonderful Mermaid Tales series. Meet MerGirl Shelly Siren and take a journey with her as she prepares for a visit from Queen Edwina, the Queen of the Western Oceans, who is coming to tea.

Pip the Mouse is in Town! — Saturday, December 6, 10 AM-Noon

Come and take a trip with Pip the Mouse, as his Christmas adventure takes us through the Lehigh Valley — all, while he returns a lost bag of toys to Santa Claus. The writing team of Robert Croesus and Laura Klotz, joined by illustrator Brian Hoffner, has made Pip into a cartoon character young readers and entire families are bound to adore. The story's lesson is about the reason behind the holidays, told in a fun way. It is one of sharing, kindness, and the holiday spirit. Make Pip part of your holiday traditions!
